[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN DATES TO OCT. 5.

Siege of Bitsche.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—Advices from Bitsche represent the condition of the town as distressing. Before the bombardment a mob plundered shops, and the population taking refuge in cellars, were either suffocated or burned to death.

The Pope and Garibaldi.

The Pope has made an appeal to Prussia in favor of peace.

Garibaldi denies any intention of serving under the French Republic.

Dispatch from London.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—The corporation of Berlin has voted a handsome sum for the relief of the people of Strasbourg. The Queen is a heavy subscriber.

A garrison has been placed in the city of Mulhausen.

Thiers says his representations to Russia were confined to placing the Tours government in the most favorable light and to showing the risks of Prussian aggrandisement. He made no propositions whatever.

The German national party demand a constituent assembly and the reconstruction of the Confederation.

General Moltke Supposed Dead.

NANTES, Oct. 4.—It is known that a great General died recently at Reims, and it is supposed from the fact that persons who took care of him were menaced with death if they divulged the secret, to have been Gen. Moltke.

Military Movements.

TOURS, Oct. 4.—Advices from Compeigne announce that the Prussians have entirely stripped Chatteau.

ROUEN, Sept. 4—via LONDON.—The Prussians are at LaFert. They levy heavy contributions. Continuous firing was heard to-day on the heights of Epernon and around Rambouillet.

The Emperor and Bazaine to Offer Peace.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—A strong belief prevails that the Emperor and Bazaine contemplate offering terms to Prussia. If the Prussians connived at the escape of Bourbaki the object was to promote such a result in view of the difficulty in treating with the Provisional Government.

Successful Sortie from Bitsche.

A correspondent before Bitsche telegraphs on the 4th that on Friday, Saturday and yesterday, the garrison made sorties with cavalry and infantry protected by shot and shell. The fire burned batteries and forms where the besiegers' outposts were in position, but previously abandoned. All previous sorties were completely repulsed. From the 11th to the 20th there was a severe bombardment, dismounting several guns and destroying the castle and many houses below. The besieging batteries became disabled by firing twenty thousand shots and withdrew to Gromersil. The covering battalions also withdrew, leaving the north and west side open. The fort is built on a two hundred foot perpendicular rock, is two stories high, has solid casements, and is impregnable. The garrison numbers 2,000 men.

Number of German Troops Around Paris.

The whole German force now occupying the lines before Paris consists of seven army corps, numbering 280,000 besides cavalry, which will probably bring the total up to 320,000.

Prediction that the Germans will Take Paris.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—A correspondent writing from Paris says that judging from present indications the Prussians will walk into Paris on the first serious attack. No works constructed of stone can stand against Krupp's cannon at the range at which the besiegers, owing to recent advances, can place them.

Assurances come from Marseilles that affairs there are becoming quite settled.

General Burnside.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—A correspondent at Boulogne sends word to-day that he has news from Versailles of the safe return from Paris of General Burnside and Col. Forbes.

Number of Troops in Paris.

It is understood that the garrison of Paris now consists of 350,000 National Guards, 350,000 regulars of the line, and 200,000 Gardes Mobiles; that these regiments and battalions are drilled, and it is confidently believed that the city of Paris alone will at no distant date be more than able to assume the offensive, and will succeed. There has been no truth with regard to any riots or fighting whatever.

From China and Japan.

A telegram from Shanghai says the North China Herald, announces that a treaty has been concluded between China and Japan for the expulsion of foreigners.

Vomito in Italy.

Advices from Florence say the vomito has appeared at Tarragona and Balboa.

POLITICAL NOTES.

The recent Republican victory in Maine was the sixteenth consecutive triumph over the Democrats. The State was first carried in 1855.

In a quiet, informal way Gen. Butler has told a company of Bostonians and Gloucester neighbors that the rumors imputing to him Senatorial ambition do him injustice. He is content to represent his district in the House of Representatives. The declaration will probably make Senator Wilson a trifle easier.

The Legislative returns thus far in Maine show 134 Representatives to the Legislature elected, of whom 101 are Republicans and 33 Democrats. The House consists of 151 members. In the Senate there are 28 Republicans to 8 Democrats. The character of the Legislature is such as to leave no doubt of the re-election of Senator Morrill to the Senate, the "revenue reformers" and "free traders" having broken down Gov. Chamberlain with their support.

The Detroit Tribune says: The nice little scheme of Ignatius Donnelly to get into Congress again from the First Minnesota District by combining the votes of Free Trade Republicans and Democrats is likely to miscarry. He put himself up as an independent candidate to secure the support of the former, and the Democratic Convention refused to make a nomination against him, but now the Pioneer, the leading Democratic paper at St Paul, refuses to support him, and a regular Democratic candidate will probably be nominated.

The Democrats think the war questions are all dead issues. They will find their mistake when the soldiers go to the polls. Until they can change timber legs to limbs of flesh and blood; and fill in thousands of homes the vacant chairs; and remove mourning from many hearts, and gravestones from a thousand cemeteries; until they can blot out memory and conscience from the minds of American citizens, they will find that they will continue to be judged by the past as well as the present. By their fruits we know them. We have no reason to believe they have changed, in a day, from traitors to true men.

The Chicago Tribune says: "The Democratic State Convention at Springfield presented a somewhat extraordinary spectacle. It was a melancholy affair from beginning to end. It met under the most gloomy auspices, and with a consciousness that it represented what was left of a party that had long since forfeited public confidence and respect. It was this consciousness that induced the Committee on Resolutions to omit every distinctive feature of the Democratic Party policy advocated since 1860. In order to get rid of the horrible record of the party, it skipped backward over Seymour, Blair, Pendleton, McClellan, Douglas, Buchanan, Pierce, Cass, Benton, Polk and Van Buren, and proposed to commence life anew, 'in the language of our great leader, Jackson.'"

The French vessel of war Reine Hortense has an apparatus on board for producing electric light so strong that a person may read by it at a distance of four miles. It is intended to show an enemy a ship and at the same time dazzle the eyes of the crew.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

Reported Death of Von Moltke

LONDON, Oct. 5.—The Telegraph this morning has a number of dispatches relating to the rumored death of Gen. Von Moltke. A lead coffin passed through Chalons and Toul supposed to have contained the remains of the great Prussian General.

Bazaine adheres to the Emperor.

Affairs in Strasbourg have resumed their ordinary course so promptly that it is difficult to realize late events.

London Dispatches.

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—A special to the Telegram has the following: London, Oct. 5. Advices from Berlin state that citizens have petitioned the King not to expose himself to personal danger at the siege of Paris. His Majesty replied that he had taken his decision, which is not to return to Berlin until the war is terminated.

Couriers from the English and Russian Government are daily passing between their respective capitals and the Prussian headquarters. It is believed that both Governments are paving the way to an armistice.

It has been suggested that there should be an incorporation of both Mecklenburgs into Prussia, and that the Grand Dukes thereof should be compensated by the cession to them of Alsace and Lorraine.

LONDON, Oct. 5.—The British Government has resolved to adopt the small bore Gattling mitrailleuse.

Russia Again.

VIENNA, Oct. 5. The Russian Government is reported to be making extraordinary military preparations in Trans Caucasia, between the Caspian and Black seas. Fortified passes to Asia have been reinforced and stores are being accumulated.

Foreigners Threatened in China.

SHANGHAI, Sept. 15.—The Chinese are threatening foreigners at Chefoo Kinkiang and Chin King.

A Bogus Manifesto.

BERLIN, Oct. 5.—The following is official: The manifesto dated Wilhelmshohe, signed by Napoleon and recently published at London is entirely unknown here, and is doubtless apocryphal.

The French Army in Algiers.

The French army now in Algiers, numbering 37,000 men, demands to be recalled to resist the Prussians.

Later from Metz

SAARBRUCKEN, Oct. 4.—The garrison at Metz makes sorties every day, but without any important results. The French are always driven back with loss. Bazaine adheres to the Emperor. The besieged are constantly sending up balloons. A large cavalry brigade has gone to Tours.

More Fighting Reported.

LONDON, Oct. 5.—A serious engagement took place in the forest of Fontainbleau near Chailly yesterday.

A dispatch just received here (Tours) from Chartres says the Prussians gained some advantage near Epernon, which opens that place to their arms. They bombarded Epernon for a time. The Mobiles and Frances Tierriens fought courageously, but were unable to contend against the vigorous artillery fire of the enemy.

FONTAINEBLEAU, Oct. 4.—A detachment of Prussians several hundred strong made an attack on the Frances Terriens near here yesterday, and were handsomely repulsed. The Prussians retreated toward Chailly.

TOURS, Oct. 5.—It is reported here to day that fighting is going on near Orleans.

A dispatch from Belfast says that the Frances Terriens had defeated a detachment of the new Prussian army which recently crossed the Rhine near Colmar.

Washington City—Fenian Prisoners to be Pardoned.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.—The President has decided to pardon all the Fenian prisoners who were engaged in the late raid, and by the 10th inst. they will all be free, Gen. O'Neil among the rest.

A special dispatch says the condition of Alabama has created grave uneasiness here for some time, and was the subject under consideration in the Cabinet to-day; as a result of which the President has issued an order directing the State to be constituted a separate Military District of the Department of the South, under command of General Crawford. Additional companies of troops have been ordered into the State.

The Nicaragua Canal Project.

[From the New York Shipping List.]

The failure of the expedition sent out by our Government to test the feasibility of a Ship Canal across Darien, has narrowed the question of uniting the waters of the Atlantic and the Pacific by an artificial water course, to a choice between the Isthmus of Nicaragua and the Isthmus of Tehuantepec. A survey of the Nicaragua route has been authorized, and the expedition will sail on the 15th proximo, under the command of Captain Schufeldt, U. S. N. The Nicaragua route, though attended by a longer transit, would save, as compared with the Darien route several hundred miles for American ports, in their trade with the Pacific coast and with Asiatic countries. It was amply demonstrated by the North American Steamship Company, which a few years ago, had a line plying between New York and San Francisco, via Nicaragua, that only fifteen miles (from the Western shore of Lake Nicaragua to the port of San Juan del Sur), needs to be cut to give water communication from ocean to ocean. The writer has passed over the route, and can bear testimony to the fact. The success of the Suez Canal imposes a duty upon our countrymen to counterbalance the effect of that enterprise on commerce, which they cannot afford to neglect. Every great enterprise achieved by foreign countries in behalf of their own interests we must endeavor to at least counterbalance by some equally great enterprise in behalf of our own; and, in view of what is going on in the Eastern hemisphere, the Americans will not be disposed to hesitate about incurring any reasonable expense in carrying through an enterprise, promising such grand results as the uniting by canal of the two great oceans. How to secure homogeneous modes of communication between different communities for their reciprocal commercial advantage, indeed, has come to be one of the great problems of the age. By reason of the separation of continents by oceans, and by reason of the insular situation of many of the countries most noted for productive industry and commercial spirit, water will continue to be, as it has ever been, the principal medium of the world's traffic. The thing to be done, and which it is left for the canal system of the future to accomplish, is to give the medium the utmost continuity which circumstances will render possible.

The New York World says of Russia: "If the present situation in Europe invites her to lay her hand upon the Bosphorus, it tempts her also to paralyse the Baltic; and on the Danube the force which left unparalyzed will sooner or later disturb her in the Mediterranean and her Eastern policy. If anything be clear in the rising European imbroglio, it is that a European statesman, equal to his task, has it in his power to-day to cripple both France and Germany by playing the despair of the vanquished against the determination of the victor.

The cost of the defensive works about Paris is estimated at over two-thirds of the value of the city they protect. In 1841 the Government obtained a grant from the Chambers of $30,000,000 for the work. Since then they have constantly been strengthened, and the extensive repairs now being made, on which many thousands of workmen are engaged, are intended to complete the great work. Six thousand cannon can be worked from these defenses.

A letter from Cassel states that Napoleon and his fellow-officers have no doubt of his restoration, and that Prussia will put him upon the throne in return for the surrender of Alsace and Lorraine.

FROM THE STATE CAPITAL.

[FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.]

SALEM, Tuesday, Oct. 4, 1870.

COOL, BUT CHARACTERISTIC.

It is perhaps fresh in the minds of most people that the State taxes due from Lane county for the year 1864, were tendered in legal tender notes, that the same being refused by the Treasurer, a lawsuit ensued—the State vs. Lane county, to recover in coin the amount of taxes due—$5,460 96. The suit, after going to the Supreme Court of the United States, was decided against the county. Now comes ex-Governor Whiteaker, a Representative from Lane county, with a bill entitled "a bill for the relief of Lane county," which provides that, "whereas the amount of said taxes has since remained on deposit without interest, on account of said tender; and, whereas, such suit settled a much vexed question and saved the State much litigation on account of similar tenders, and was prosecuted at great expense to said county, therefore, be it enacted, etc., that the interest on the judgment in favor of the State of Oregon and against Lane county, etc., from the 4th day of August, 1865, from the date of such judgment, (in the Circuit Court) to the 4th day of December, 1870, not to exceed the sum of two thousand, nine hundred and twelve dollars and fifty cents, be, and the same is hereby remitted," etc.

Now, there's refreshing coolness for you; Lane county undertakes to pay her taxes in depreciated currency; refuses to pay according to the terms of the Constitution, till compelled by a long and expensive lawsuit, and then comes in and asks to have a part of the judgment remitted on the ground that the county saved the State "further litigation," and on the further ground that the county had incurred great expense on account of its own obstinacy. This must certainly strike most people as a new and somewhat novel application of the idea of "equitable adjustment." The State has been all this time without the money due from Lane county, on account of the bad conduct of the county, and now it has the cheek to ask the State to forego a part of its claim, because the bad conduct of the county was expensive! Frigid, isn't it?

THE PUBLIC PRINTING.

Since the inquiry has been set afoot as to the legal or illegal manner in which the State printing was being done I see that there is a slight improvement in the style of doing the bills, resolutions, &c. Before that time the top most line on the first page was placed a little below the middle of the sheet; now I observe that the line is from a quarter to an inch and a quarter higher up—in one case I think the line was an inch and seven-eighths nearer the top. This is better, but I submit that where the charge is for a full page there is still some room for improvement.

The most striking case of "fuss and feathers," or "much ado about nothing," is that of the printing of the report of the House Committee on Military Affairs on the affairs of the Adjutant General's office. It is printed in pamphlet form, having a red cover with title page, and an inside title page, and then follows the report all printed on less than two pages. The entire report could be put on less than a page of foolscap; yet it is printed in book form, with two title pages, absolutely as useless as though they were printed in Chinese characters, except as they serve to swell the purse of the State Printer at the expense of the State. The inquiry into the manner of doing the printing was not instituted any too soon, nor can it be prosecuted any too thoroughly. Mr. Cochran stands by the Printer and manages to get most all bills printed except when the author himself makes objection.

THE HOUSE VOTES IN FAVOR OF THE SCHOOL FUND.

About the only matter of importance in the House to-day was the discussion upon, and the adoption of, a resolution offered by Mr. Starkweather, of Clackamas, asking Congress to confirm the 500,000 acre land grant to the school fund. The discussion you already have, I suppose, from the Legislative reporter. The vote on the resolution was yeas 26, of whom 17 are Republicans and 9 are Democrats. The nays, 21, are all Democrats except Lockhart. When the resolution comes into the Senate the vote, so far as can now be known, will be yeas, 10; nays, 11. It is possible that it may be one vote better for the school fund, but I fear not.

DAILY PASSAGE-AT-WORDS.

There has scarcely been a day for a week or more when there was not a wordy war-passage between Mr Cochran and either Hendershott, Fay, Trevitt or Baldwin. Frequently the amenities of Senatorial debate are overstepped and the Senators engage in firing shots of wit, satire or undisguised ill-feeling. To-day the passage occurred between Hendershott and Cochran on the bill to appropriate $3,750 to complete the drainage of State lands in Union county. It was a pet measure of Mr. Hendershott's, and Mr. Cochran attacked it as more in the nature of a private job than a measure for public good. Mr. Hendershott got hot in the collar and made use of some words for which the President called him to order. He said then that he would apologise to the Senate but not to the gentleman from Lane. Mr. Cochran, with a look grandly ferocious, said he did not ask an apology; whereat, Hendershott, with a look fiercely ferocious, said he would not get any. The President, with a look of "let us have peace," called both gentlemen to order. For a moment or two the atmosphere looked ominous of a storm something more terrific than words; but "after dark there was light," and in a few moments an expression of seraphic sweetness settled upon the Senatorial brows, and all was lovely for the balance of the day.

THE MATTER OF APPORTIONMENT.

You may put it down as certain that there will be no reapportionment this session of Senators and Representatives. The present apportionment suits the Democracy far better than would a new one based on the populations of the several counties and districts. A fair distribution would give the Republicans a gain and the Democracy a corresponding loss of votes on joint ballot. The Democracy are not of that mettle which submits to a loss when any act of commission or omission places it in their power to gain or retain strength, no matter whether the act be lawful or unlawful, fair or foul. This has been fully demonstrated by the outrages perpetrated on the electors of Douglas and Benton counties, and which will be demonstrated again by their disobedience of the constitution in regard to apportionment of members. It is not at all uncommon to hear Democratic members speak contemptuously of the Constitution in this behalf and to declare that, Constitution or no Constitution, there shall be no reapportionment this session. They have the best of it and they are going to keep it.

THE GOVERNOR AT HOME.

Gov. Grover and lady are at home this evening to their friends, and I hear that there is a gay and festive assemblage there. I shall ask Jenkins all about it when he gets home and gets sober enough to be coherent, and then if there is anything worth a chapter I will chronicle it.

Strange how two men may sometimes think alike for very different reasons. The fact was aptly illustrated the other day while Gen. Sherman was at the Overland. Soldier No. 1 says:

"Well, I don't think I care about shaking hands with the General; I followed him all the way through Georgia."

Soldier No. 2 in reply says

"Well, I don't care about shaking hands with him, either: he followed me like h—l all the way through Georgia."—Idaho Statesman.

The English Government looks coldly on the tremendous struggle in France. Earl Granville refuses a word of sympathy for either side, for fear of offending the other. Anything to keep out of danger. Anything to gather in trade. The country will sell bomb shells or glycerine to either side, with equal indifference, so that they pay. Humanity is no way recognized, as involved in the conflict. "Neutrality" is the trade mark on the ammunition sold, and they may fight it out,

THURSDAY MORNING OCTOBER [illegible] 1870

The School Lands

Considerable controversy has taken place in the Legislature over the 500,000 acres of land granted to the State for common school purposes. The inspiring cause of this controversy is an attempt on the part of certain [illegible] to get hold of these lands on various pretences but really for speculative purposes. Some members have expressed a doubt as to whether the lands in consideration really belong to the State inasmuch as the act of Congress under which the State was admitted is wholly silent on the subject. But there should be no doubt that the lands are really the property of the State. There certainly is no doubt that they were intended for the benefit of our common school system. Most of the lands have been selected by our State authorities and the selections have been accepted by the Department at Washington. The lands were selected as school lands, and have been confirmed as such. No question has been raised by the Department of the Interior as to the validity of the grant. Therefore we cannot imagine why any one should doubt that the lands are actually the property of the State to be held or used for the benefit of common schools.

But there are parties now at work who want to divert these lands from the object for which they were granted by Congress and selected by the State. Their proposition to do this takes the form of a plausible and specious plan to promote and foster internal improvements. Now we think it is rather late in the day after the State has had these lands selected and the matter has rested quietly for a dozen years to raise a question as to the validity of the grant, and, on the pretext of getting it renewed so change its conditions that the lands can be diverted from school purposes and jobbed out among corporations. Internal improvements are excellent for the State but we don't know of any object more worthy of being fostered and promoted than that of education. It is really about as profitable to subsidize common schools as anything else and certainly it will result as well for the State in the long run as to waste these lands in subsidizing roads in localities where nobody lives and nobody wants to travel. That the construction of locks at Wallamet Falls is a very desirable and important project all will admit, but we think these locks should be constructed in some other way than by laying violent hands on our endowment for the support of common schools. There are many who will not see the utility of robbing the whole State, now and hereafter, for the benefit of any corporation, no matter how valuable the improvements which that corporation expects to make. Ways enough will be found to build roads and improve our water courses without doing it at the expense of the educational interests of the State.

Again, if a successful attack is once made on the school endowment lands the whole of them will be speedily seized on one pretext after another. The consequences would be less injurious if the whole proceeds were devoted to actual and needed works of internal improvement but most of the proceeds would go into the hands of men who delight to speculate in such enterprises as our so-called military roads, and similar schemes. The lands would thus be jobbed out in a way to make a few persons rich, and the State would derive no substantial benefit from it. The vote in the House on Tuesday is an indication against the success of this scheme but there is no certainty that it will not yet be revived in some way. Since the House as at present constituted declines to make this inroad on the school lands it is probable enough that the advocates of the measure will make an attempt to change the status of the House on the subject by pushing some of the contests for seats in that body.

When General Schofield read the Boise Chronicle containing the attempted insult to General Sherman, he said "Well, I don't see any point in this except an attempt to be insulting without any provocation but" said he, "one thing surprises me. I see the advertisements of a number of respectable business men here, and I thing if they were to be judged by the character of the paper it would be doing them great injustice." No one has failed to notice that while Gen Sherman was on this side of the mountains there was a general attempt everywhere on the part of Democrats, so-called, to insult him. Their malignant spite against him rose spontaneously, and there was no reason whatever for it except that he had fought against secession and acted a most important part in quelling the rebellion.

The House on Tuesday passed by a vote of 26 to 21 a resolution in favor of retaining the 500,000 acres of land, granted to the State by Congress, for school purposes. This was well. We are glad to find the name of no Republican recorded in favor of the grabbers in the vote on this resolution. But we hear that the aforesaid grabbers do not yet give it up. They propose to oust the Republican members from Yamhill and Clackamas so that the act they contemplate can be consummated. Let them go ahead.

It seems from the dispatches that the Chinese are about to expel foreigners from their country. Now these "heathen wretches" are really making themselves almost as ridiculous as the Oregon Legislature. Without doubt their idea of expelling foreigners was borrowed from the attempts of the Oregon Legislature to expel their people from here. These "degraded heathen" are an imitative race.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has issued orders for the withdrawal of lands to the extent of twenty miles on each side of the North Pacific railroad in Wisconsin and Minnesota, that company having filed maps, designating their line of route through the States named. Orders will be sent in a few days for a similar withdrawal in Oregon and in Washington Territory.

The San Francisco Chronicle says that the Oregon Legislature in its treatment of Gen Sherman, the distinguished soldier, whom non-combative Democratic partisan journals have delighted and still delight, to assail has discharged a duty it owes to the memory of the late Confederate States of America.

The complete census of Illinois shows a population of 2,557,032 against 1,711,951 in 1860. Gain in ten years 845,081. This gain exceeds the entire population of the Pacific States and Territories.

Over half of the Democratic nominees for Congress in Ohio this fall are old Know Nothings.

DUTIES.—The duty paid on the cargo of the Stagho[illegible] amounted to $900.

Col Kelly and His Bargain

The [illegible] Senator [illegible] has been deeply wronged by the combined efforts of certain Oregon journals of both political parties to crush the fair fame of Col. Kelly and to impair his influence in the national Councils by assaults on his personal honor and integrity. We do not here intend to go into this subject with a design of showing, or more that it was Col Kelly himself who tarnished his fair fame [illegible] a Democratic [illegible].

The pretext for these assaults upon Col Kelly, is his assent to certain resolutions passed by the Democratic caucus pending the nomination for Senator, pledging the candidate to aid the railroad route by the way of Jacksonville instead of the Humboldt route which he had heretofore favored. The [illegible] and OREGONIAN [illegible] this action as a corrupt bargain dishonorable and disgraceful to all concerned in it and especially to Col Kelly. The Herald pretending to be a friend of the assailed accepts this construction and puts in a defense infinitely more damaging to the honor and integrity of Col Kelly than all the assaults of his enemies. It characterizes the resolutions of instruction as 'buncomb,' and represents the affair as a piece of sharp practice by which the friends of Kelly circumvented the opposition and secured his election by bogus resolutions and pledges which they expect him to violate, like the platform of a radical convention and subsequently assails a certain Democrat in the Legislature and his associates for the treachery and bad faith to the party which subjected Col Kelly to these disgraceful and humiliating conditions. The animus of such a defense is too transparently hypocritical and malignant to deceive any one else it would place the Democratic members of the Legislature before the public as a compound batch of knaves and fools and Col Kelly as a party trickster destitute of honor and truth and a fitter candidate for the penitentiary than the Senate. There never was a baser libel uttered either directly or indirectly or by innuendo and this by a pretended friend and party organ.

Portions of this criticism are pretty severe on the Herald. But what will the writer think when he learns that the friends of Kelly in the Legislature have actually gone back from the position they took in the caucus by passing a resolution in favor of the Humboldt route? This they have done and according to the judgment of the Standard they have placed themselves before the public as a "compound batch of knaves and fools." These be discourteous words but if our Democratic brethren will talk so about each other how are we to help it? The Standard continues

Ever since the June election nearly the entire editorial labors of the Herald were devoted to personal assaults upon Ben Holladay, on the assumption that he entertained the design of corrupting a large portion of the Democratic members of the Legislature, and that there was serious apprehensions of his success—an imputation quite as discreditable to the Democratic party as to the party assailed, and since the crisis is past without any manifest calamity to the party, the editor is trying to vindicate his character for political sagacity by pretending that Democrats were corrupted and that their corrupt schemes were only thwarted by superior schemes of chicanery. Such representations of the Democratic party of Oregon by its chief organ reflects but little credit upon that party abroad.

This whole affair and the discussions that have grown out of it, throw light on the character of the Democratic party. That party as photographed by its principal organs, is indeed a charming organization.

Terms of Office

The Supreme Court has delivered an opinion in the case of the contested Judgeship in Linn county which we consider entirely unsound. The case is thus stated by a contemporary journal

Johns was elected County Judge in 1868—to succeed Geary, appointed by Gov Woods to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of the County Judge elected at the general election in 1866 for a term of four years. At the last general election Whitney was elected County Judge, and Johns declined to surrender to him the office, as he claimed that his election in 1868, was for the term of four years. Whitney commenced proceedings to test the validity of Johns position. The case was tried before Judge Boise, in the Circuit Court for Linn county. The court decided that the election of Johns in 1868 was for a term of four years, and therefore the election of Whitney at the general election of June 1870, was of no force or effect. The cause was appealed to the Supreme Court, and the court has affirmed the decision of Judge Boise.

We shall not now go into the case but will remark that if this be a sound opinion our State officers, that is to say the Governor, Secretary of State, Treasurer and Printer will not always as now be elected at the same time. The regularity of successive administrations will be broken up for officials do sometimes die though they rarely resign. The Bulletin from which paper we take the above statement of the case, has this observation upon it

It would, perhaps be a popular measure if the Legislature should at this session pass a law declaring the term of every office—whether for two years four years or six years—to exist in the office itself, and not, as the Court has decided in the case under mention in the incumbent. That is to say, let the law be so amended that a four years' term shall continue for four years and not expire in two years by reason of the resignation, removal or death of the incumbent.

It is our understanding of the case that the decision of the court was given as a judicial interpretation of a certain provision of our Constitution. This being so, it seems to us that the decision must stand until the Constitution is amended, or the decision reviewed and reversed by the court itself. A Legislative enactment would hardly fix it inasmuch as the Supreme Court as now constituted would treat such an act as in conflict with the Constitution and therefore null.

A BEAR STORY. Fourteen miles out from here lives Captain Wm Powell, a good hunter and a clever gentleman. He keeps a hotel, and his gun is a happy instrument in providing something appetizing for the table. These preliminaries will account for the fact of his making [illegible] in the woods the other day with his trusty rifle but we infer from the fact that he had only ammunition for two shots that he was not in search of big game. [illegible] he looked up and saw a sight which would have caused a less fearless hunter to send for reinforcements. An old she bear and three cubs looked down upon him and smiled a defiant smile showing their rows of ivories. But he [illegible] and brought [illegible] with the first ball and a cub with the second. Two more cubs were in the tree and the hunter was making a vain search in his pockets for the wherewith to shoot them when out from the dark forest [illegible] and presently [illegible] appeared for Bruin's army. The old [illegible] had snuffed the battle from afar and in clean desperation charged on the despoiler of his household. There was no time for reflection. The attack was a complete surprise, the rifle was empty and there was no ammunition to fill it, and the old hunter was forced to make a hasty retreat leaving the field in possession of the enemy. The Captain reached his headquarters in safety and afterward secured his game.—Green Bay [illegible]

"Well, David," said [illegible] to one of the Boston magnates, "the world has prospered with you and they say that you are immensely rich." "Well," replied David, "perhaps it is true, but we can not take our gold with us when we go." "It would melt if you did," was the quick retort.

The Lynchburg Virginian says that "when Gen Lee heard of the defeat of McMahon's army and the surrender of the Emperor he quietly remarked that he did not see how any commander with a million of men at his back could surrender." But if this million of men didn't care a button for the "man in the breach," what then?

Future Peace in Europe

An English paper [illegible] Bismarck's Prussia and discourses in such terms as these

There is perhaps no man in Europe who understands so well the length and breadth of the Count von Bismarck's plans as Napoleon III. The two men began diplomatic life at about the same time, twenty years ago, and they have watched each other incessantly ever since. They have schemed together and they have schemed against one another and the result has been that while each player has known almost every card in the other's hand the latter has been at times outwitted by the minister. It is not that Bismarck is the abler diplomatist but he has advantages. Napoleon is not a scrupulous man, but he has a few scruples. Bismarck has none. The minister president's power at home is practically unlimited. Napoleon's home affairs are more arduous than those of any other sovereign in the world. Count Bismarck's plot, though utterly selfish and pursued for no beneficial end, is surrounded with a fictitious halo of patriotism; the Emperor's counter-schemes are wanting in the same seeming justification. Prussia is moving in Germany only, and [illegible] at a distance like nothing more than a family quarrel. France on the other hand must submit to be reduced to the position of a second rate power or incur the censure and perhaps the enmity of its contemporaries. The Northern kingdom moves in a comparatively remote orbit, the empire of the Franks lies close within the range of the moral eye of England which has become among nations the most advanced professor of political morality.

To this, even if there were truth in it, it is to be answered that we ought to forget men and examine tendencies. Whether the German minister is as little scrupulous as the late French sovereign, whether even if he be so he does not at any rate occupy a higher moral level by reason of the large national aims which are to him what base individual or family aims are to the other, these and the like questions have their interest but the issue to be decided is whether German victory or French victory would be the more favorable to the establishment of a pacific equilibrium in Europe. There cannot be two opinions on this point. There is peace in a German victory.

It is pretty certain that Linton Stephens of Georgia, Chairman of the Democratic Central Committee by his late letter, semi-secession at the best, and full of obsolete State Rights vagaries, has made a mess of it. It has probably cost his party all the negro votes which otherwise they might have been likely to get. There is a call on the part of the wiser wing of the party for an official repudiation of the letter, and Mr L Stephens will probably be obliged to resign his position. Even Sam Randall has been aroused to the perils of the situation and telegraphs that the letter is "fatal to the party." The party is indeed in a dangerous state. Here are 98,000 negro voters on one hand, and on the other men like Toombs and A H Stephens and this other Stephens doing their best to alienate the whole colored vote, just to gratify their personal spleen.

General Beauregard thinks that Napoleon has been badly treated. "He has given France not only prestige, but a development and prosperity the most unbounded." Yet now the people are "even climbing four story houses to tear down the arms and insignia of his empire."

[illegible] That the master of every vessel entering the Columbia river and bound for Portland shall [illegible] his papers to the collector of the [illegible] with him a sworn copy of the manifest of cargo, and if said vessel be laden with domestic merchandise or merchandise in bond for Portland the collector [illegible] her to proceed to her port of destination; but if she shall have [illegible] merchandise on board no bonded merchandise, a customs officer to proceed on said vessel to Portland who shall see that no goods are landed from such vessel before her arrival and entry at the latter port. And [illegible] expenses including the per diem of such officer and the expense of his return to Astoria shall be paid by the master of such vessel to the collector of customs at Portland for the United States before permit shall be granted to unload.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That all vessels coming from sea and bound to sea [illegible] on arrival at Astoria report to the collector and the master of every vessel so reporting [illegible] a copy of the manifest, including all [illegible] taken on board after leaving Portland with the collector at Astoria and there [illegible] shall be allowed to proceed to sea. And the master or other person in charge or command of any vessel entering the Columbia river from sea, or clearing from Portland and bound to sea, as hereinbefore described who shall neglect to exhibit his papers or to report to the collector and deposit a manifest as herein required shall forfeit and pay the sum of one hundred dollars.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That whenever any vessel shall arrive at Astoria from sea having merchandise on board for that place, and also for Portland, such vessel shall enter at Astoria and discharge such portion of her cargo as is destined for that place whereupon the collector shall cause the hatches to be closed and sealed and shall grant permit her to proceed to Portland in charge of a customs officer as hereinbefore provided.

Approved June 14 1870.

FOR SAN FRANCISCO.—The steamship Oriflamme, Capt. Metzger of the North Pacific Transportation Company's line leaves her dock in this city for San Francisco at 6 o'clock A M today. The following are her passengers: Mrs [illegible] and 2 children; H Nelson, wife and 2 children; P M McLaren, wife and daughter; [illegible] McClellan; Rev E C Anderson; Peter Dies; [illegible] P P Ware; Benj Stark; S H Claypool; Mrs [illegible] and children; C I Taylor and wife; [illegible] Cummings; Miss Blanch Arnold; W T Ram[illegible]; [illegible]; Martin Carter; B M [illegible]; A J Hod[illegible]; Wm [illegible]; [illegible] and child; W [illegible] Chapman and wife; Rev [illegible] Deardorff; B Barnes; I Richmond; John [illegible] and wife; J R Baron and wife; Mrs [illegible]; P D Rindmarrer and wife; Max Vogt; [illegible] Coleman; C Hawse; J D Teal; D F Fg[illegible]; [illegible] Jacob Smith; Wm [illegible] Bell; Master Sille[illegible]; [illegible] D F Stimpson; W [illegible] wife and child; [illegible] wife and 2 children; C P Fairfield and [illegible]; J S Dewer; J M Dewer, wife and 3 children; W J Adams; R P Spier; J Smeltzer and daughter; (Wells, Fargo & Co's messenger) and 12 in steerage.

THE "RAT HOLE" ABANDONED.—They do a [illegible] sight of heavy editorial work all for [illegible] in the Herald office. Those of our citizens who chanced to read to [illegible] the organ's "rat hole" productions will be puzzled to account for the sudden change of views on that important [illegible], as indicated in that paper yesterday, if [illegible] should possess charity enough to attribute [illegible] of principle to the concern. After all its [illegible] to show that Mr Holladay intended to [illegible] a rat hole of this city, the Herald has changed its views completely and now has the [illegible] to give its readers a few bits of intelligence [illegible] the opposite tack which completely upsets the whole doctrine. It now argues that Ben [illegible] can't make a rat hole of Portland if [illegible] it snaps its fingers at him in disdain [illegible] skeptical degree is its unbelieving na[illegible] and [illegible] Holladay to go ahead and [illegible] his road at Oswego. Portland ain't a [illegible] the Herald.

FIGS.—Yesterday we visited the premises of [illegible] Recorder Lee Anderson and there plucked [illegible] the living lush figs of the third crop for [illegible]. It is an unusual thing to find this [illegible] growing in Oregon but that which we have [illegible] is a very choice. The trees have figs developing of the fourth crop this year. The growth of [illegible] is one of the most interesting studies in [illegible]. The fruit of the fig tree is the flower [illegible] is curiously concealed from observation, that many persons think there are none [illegible] are very numerous being borne inside of a [illegible] hollow receptacle which first appears [illegible] of the young shoots, like small round [illegible]. These therefore have become duly impregnated, after a time they become pulpy, sweet, and [illegible]. There is a large variety of [illegible] trees and shrubbery on the block upon [illegible] Anderson resides.

[illegible] Oregon Lodge No [illegible] Oregon City have tendered their hall [illegible] the Grand Lodge of I O G T for Oregon [illegible] meet at Oregon City on the 19th and [illegible] of Wallamet Lodge No 15, I O [illegible] are making every preparation possible for [illegible] entertainment of visitors. The Oregon and California railroad Company have fixed the following rates [illegible] $1 00 [illegible] Canby [illegible] $[illegible] Salem [illegible]. The reduction on the river by the P T [illegible] to Oregon City [illegible] Buena Vista $3 [illegible] Dayton [illegible] proper.

General Wimpffen and Napoleon at the Surrender of Sedan

London September 28 —An officer of General De Wimpffen writes as follows of the battle and surrender of Sedan "The Prussians having terminated their movements, attacked us on our right in order to drive us on fresh troops who awaited our descent from the plateau before deploying all their forces For a moment General De Wimpffen was deluded and believed in a victory not yet knowing that he had before him more than 150 000 of the enemy In the evening he resolved to open a pass for his troops to the beleaguered ... or march upon Gironne It would doubtless have succeeded as the enemy half disorganized by the contest had remained in position on the field of battle But the Emperor who still held de facto the chief command prevented him and paralyzed his best efforts by calling up the Prussians with a white flag and by addressing a letter to the King General De Wimpffen after a warm altercation with the Emperor and his suite on the subject, returned to his quarters, and gave in his resignation Napoleon refused to accept it and wrote to him the following note

General You cannot resign at this moment when the army may still be saved by an honorable capitulation. You have done your duty all day do it still You will render a great service to the country The King has accepted the armistice and I am waiting for his propositions Believe me in friendship NAPOLEON

The General was then persuaded that only one course was open In retiring alone as he could do he might avoid personal captivity but he would not abandon the gallant soldiers who had braved death under his orders during the whole day Seeing also that in ... acting he would ill perform the functions of General in Chief placed in his hands by the fortunes of war he decided to remain at the head of his army to share the lot of all and to set his name to the capitulation That terrible act which closes an immense disaster by an unforeseen catastrophe was the most brilliant of his career

BISMARCK ON THE SITUATION—NOTIFICATION TO PRUSSIA TOWARD FRANCE—WHAT SHE DEMANDS AND MUST HAVE

[illegible] Sept 23 [Cable special to the [illegible]ne]—The Tribune correspondent telegraphs from Berlin the following letter from Bismarck on the means and conditions of peace dated Meaux September 18th

[illegible] Excellency is familiar with the circular which M Jules Favre addressed through the foreign representatives of France in the name of the men for the present holding power in Paris and who call themselves [illegible] Gouvernement de la Défense I have learned that M Thiers has entered upon a confidential mission to foreign Courts and I may presume he will endeavor in the part of the Parisian Government to request the interference of neutral powers in favor of a peace which shall deprive Germany of her victory to make the next attack of France on Germany more difficult

We cannot believe in the sincerity of the Parisian Government to make peace so long as it continues by its language and its acts at home to excite the Parisian people to increase the hatred and bitterness of a population stung by sufferings of war to repudiate in advance every basis acceptable to Germany and unacceptable to France By such a course it becomes impossible to make a peace for which the people should be prepared by calm words and in terms corresponding with the gravity of the situation

If we are to believe that negotiations for peace with us are honestly intended the demand that we should conclude an armistice without guarantees for our conditions of peace could be meant seriously, only on the supposition that we lack morality and political judgment or are indifferent to the interests of Germany

Moreover the hope entertained by the present rulers in Paris of a Diplomatic Convention of neutral powers in favor of France, prevents the French people from seeing the necessity of peace

When the French nation becomes convinced that they having conjured up a war with Germany and having to fight it out alone, they must also settle their account with Germany alone they will soon put an end to their resistance

Now surely it would be an unavailing cruelty to the French people, by the neutrals to permit the Prussian Government to nourish among the people hopes of intervention which cannot be realized and thereby lengthen the contest.

We are far from any inclination to mix in the internal affairs of France it is immaterial to us what kind of government the French people shall formally establish for themselves The Government of Emperor Napoleon has hitherto been the only one recognized by us Our conditions of peace, with whatever Government we may have to negotiate are wholly independent of the question of how or by whom the French nation is governed

These are prescribed to us by the nature of things and by the law of self defence, against a violent and hostile neighbor The unanimous vote of the German Government and the German people, demand that Germany shall be protected by better boundaries than we have had hitherto against the dangers and violence we have experienced from all French Governments for centuries So long as France remains in possession of Strasbourg and Metz so long is its offensive strategically stronger than our defensive.

So far as all South Germany and North Germany on the left bank of the Rhine are concerned Strasbourg in the possession of France is a gate always wide open for attack on South Germany, in the hands of Germany Strasbourg and Metz attain a defensive character

We have never been aggressive to France and we demand of the latter nothing else than our safety in our own land so often threatened by it France on the other hand will regard any peace that may be made now as an armistice only, and in order to avenge the present defeat will attack us in the same quarter as soon as it feels strong enough from its own resources, or from foreign alliance.

In rendering it difficult for France, from whose initiative alone, hitherto the disturbances of Europe have resulted, to resume the offensive, we at the same time act in the interest of Europe—which is that of peace. From Germany no disturbance is to be feared

After having had this war forced upon us, which for four years by our care and by restraining the feelings of our national self respect, so incessantly outraged by France we had prevented, we mean now for our future safety to demand the price of our mighty efforts.

We shall demand only that which we must have for our defense Nobody will be able to accuse us of a want of moderation if we insist on this just and equitable demand

Your Excellency will make these views your own and advocate them in discussion

(Signed) BISMARCK

The above is the circular to the North German representatives abroad

The Germans in our Political Campaign

[From the New York Times Sept 21]

There can be no question that the Republican party are to gain in the approaching political campaign, an important German vote We hear on every side that the German Americans, who have hitherto been members of the Democratic party have become disgusted with the course of the Democratic leaders and journals on the Franco-German question and are coming over in large numbers to the Republican side It is well understood by them that the leading organs of the Democratic party have assailed the cause of the Fatherland with every weapon of sarcasm and abuse The World has never ceased vilifying the motives of the Germans and using every possible argument to draw American sympathy from the Prussians. The Republican journals on the other hand, have almost unanimously sympathized with the struggle for German unity From the beginning they have condemned the means which Louis Napoleon used to acquire power, and the oppression he has exercised over free thought and personal liberty They opposed him when seeking to acquire a foothold for imperialist ideas in Mexico and would undoubtedly have urged the nation to war rather than submit to a permanent French occupation of that unfortunate country

When Napoleon, on the 15th of July last began his sudden and uncalled for war against North Germany the Republican public men and newspapers felt and denounced it as an unprovoked attack on a peaceful neighbor they regarded the struggle as in fact one between Cæsarism on one side and a people just beginning a course of constitutional liberty on the other Between Napoleon and King William personally they had not much to choose but one represented despotic ideas and the other for the moment the mighty efforts of a free community toward unity which we know from experience to be the path to liberty Moreover Germany embodied to our minds the freer ideas of the age freedom of thought and constitutional progress its army was a citizen army, and its strength like our own lay in popular education Its Teutonic virtues were our own pains taking industry a pure family life and the courage which though not often brilliant, grows firmer from disaster These were some of the reasons which brought the Republican party into sympathy with Germany in this great struggle The sympathy would have been equally deep and honest had no German Americans existed

The Parisians have been trying to persuade themselves that Prussia can only bring from 180 000 to 200 000 men to the investment of Paris This is how the result is arrived at 800 000 men is taken to be the effective total of the combined German armies Up to Aug 18th the Prussians lost by their own avowal 200 000 men From the 18th August to the 7th September there are reckoned to have been before the seven besieged fortresses and with the corps of McMahon and Bazaine a total of 113 days of fighting The losses during this series of conflicts are set down at another 200 000 men The troops investing Metz Pfalsburg, and other fortresses and those necessary to maintain the greatly extended lines of communication are estimated at another 200 000 leaving for the siege of Paris a number not exceeding this

One of the effects of the war has been to bring forward Weissheimer's opera of Theodore Kor[illegible]

ner which heretofore could not be produced on account of its liberal sentiments In the other's own songs are introduced with a powerful chorus It was enthusiastically received at [illegible]

Dr Gibbon's Dispensary.

623 KEARNEY STREET NEAR COMMERCIAL San Francisco Established in 1854 for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases such as Gonorrhœa Gleet Stricture Syphilis in all its forms Seminal Weakness Impotency etc Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated

Horrible Diseases

How many thousands of persons both male and female are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences or from disease absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene Let parents guardians friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon a physician who has made private diseases his special study for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs It is important to those who are afflicted or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions the consequence of self-abuse This solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms unless combatted by scientific medical measures viz Sallow countenance dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots uneasiness about the loins weakness of the limbs confused vision blunted intellect loss of confidence diffidence in approaching strangers a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society loss of memory hectic flushes; pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue fetid breath coughs consumption night sweats monomania and frequent insanity If relief be not obtained should apply immediately either in person or by letter and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks

MARRIED MEN.

Or those who contemplate marriage who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them no delay to obtain immediate relief

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible and will give to each patient a written instrument binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon stating case symptoms length of time the disease has continued and have medicines promptly forwarded free from damage and curiosity to any part of the country with full and plain directions for use for Ten Dollars sent in registered letter or through Wells Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who with bogus sworn to certificates dupe the unwary Some of the self styled doctors whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places are tradesmen and became too lazy to work at their trades Some are tinsmiths shoe makers newspaper carriers intelligence office keepers etc Look over the San Francisco Directory and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it but you will find their former occupations in it Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863 The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets for as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are Dr Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles certificates pretended patient's letters, etc Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure

Address DR J F GIBBON 623 Kearney street corner Commercial (Private Entrance on Commercial) San Francisco [illegible] Box 252

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 252 ON THE LETTER Consultation FREE

Correspondents will please inform DR GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian ly6dptf

THE RIVERSIDE

HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION

OF

EAST PORTLAND, OREGON,

IS NOW PREPARED TO RECEIVE SUBSCRIPTIONS to their Stock

Application for ONE HUNDRED SHARES was made before the books were opened and a large [illegible] Shares have been taken

The following extracts from the Oregonian and Bulletin will convey a good idea of the plan and working of the Association the location of the land, etc, etc.

RIVERSIDE HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION.

This association of whose organization we gave an account a few days since is now ready for the purpose of shares As it is with [illegible] Portland Homestead Association) the pioneer organization of that kind in this city, it may be well enough to state what are its prospects the manner in which it is proposed to [illegible] operations The purposes of these [illegible] Associations are not at all speculative in the ordinary sense of the word They are [illegible] for the profits of their investment upon the natural advance in the value of their lands consequent upon the co-operation of many individuals—shareholders—and the advance on value of all surrounding lands by reason of the increase of population and demand for room still near the city The Riverside Association has a fraction over one hundred and twenty acres of land situated just south of Brooklyn on the east side of the river, the western boundary line being about one mile from the ferry landing at East Portland. The land lies in one strip along the Willamette river, half [illegible] in length and another strip along the Oregon and California railroad, half a mile in length, the two strips being connected near the middle by four rows of blocks (with a street [illegible]) whole forming a figure not unlike the letter H. It is divided into 74 blocks, 280 [illegible] streets running at right angles and [illegible] al lots along the river front. The [illegible] ber 600, worth $60 per share It will be [illegible] a share thus represents nearly a lot with an undivided interest in the 30 [illegible] The additional shares are to be sold off at the proportion for the benefit of the Association, [illegible] coming in for the proceeds in proportion to the number of shares held When all these are taken and the Association shall determine to do it, the choice of lots and blocks will be put up at auction to the highest bidder the proceeds of such sale, after [illegible] the original price of shares or lots, to be divided equally among the whole [illegible] Thus if a person wants a particular lot or block and is willing to pay $160 or $300 [illegible] or less as the case may be) he pays it and gets the lot or block as his individual property the premium being divided among the whole of shareholders It will be seen, that [illegible] everything is co-operative, and all [illegible] No man can make a dollar out of [illegible] out also making a dollar for every other shareholder There is no chance for loss, unless the property by some chance, should [illegible] far below the first actual cost. Which is not liable to happen in the case of this [illegible] tract of land must be judged by each for himself but considering the steady and rapid advance on real estate in this city and vicinity, the [illegible] hood and at East Portland and vicinity, in the last year or two, it seems hardly possible for values to go back

In the Riverside Association all proper precautions seem to have been taken to guard against monopolies of shares No person is allowed to buy more than the number of shares [illegible] three blocks or twenty four lots, and [illegible] terminating the operations of the [illegible] restricted in the same manner. The [illegible] shares may pay down $60 per share, which will exempt them from all [illegible] or they may pay $15 quarterly with an [illegible] share, payable with the first installment [illegible] liable in this latter case to another (and only one other) assessment of $5 per share. Upon [illegible] payment of the shares in full, with the [illegible] as above, the holder is entitled to his [illegible] and his proportion of all the profits [illegible] all sources No officer of the Association [illegible] any pay for services except the [illegible] gets $25 per month so it will be seen that [illegible] expenses must be light.

That part of the tract lying along the river is a high plateau nearly level, about 50 to 60 feet above the water There is no part of the land [illegible] row of blocks but commands a splendid view of Portland and the river for miles up and down stream That part of the tract lying along the railroad is every foot of it, of the richest land soil and adapted to gardening but [illegible] A beautiful little stream of pure water runs through almost the entire length of this wing of the tract affording the means of irrigation, and power sufficient to supply pure water to every part of the whole tract. There is not a waste lot or [illegible] lot in the entire tract Under all these advantages it would seem impossible that there should be any chance of loss to shareholders Within a year each shareholder, if he chooses, may get a perfect title to as many lots as his shares may represent or he may continue his interest, undivided with the Association while the Association may exist.—Oregonian.

THE RIVERSIDE HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION

We have been led to make these remarks from the fact that the subject of making [illegible] the skirts of this city and East Portland, is being thoroughly discussed here among all [illegible]

Riverside Just south of East Portland has already been established The site selected is a tract of land [illegible] a little over a mile south of the ferry landing [illegible] shaped like the letter H, one side of which, a half mile in length borders on the river [illegible] which is elevated [illegible]

From this portion of the [illegible] but a trifle above the other prong of the H but [illegible] forty or fifty feet above the river, can be had an extensive view of Portland, East Portland, the shipping, and the Willamette river for several miles. The land is very fertile and is partly covered with light fir timber [illegible] tract of land just wide enough for two rows of blocks, with an avenue between them, connects the two prongs of the H (which has already been described) with that [illegible] the east The last tract of land is a beautiful little valley which is now under a high state of cultivation. Through its whole length runs a trout brook, the water of which is as crystal With a hydraulic ram the Association have power to have water conveyed through pipes to every portion of the homestead.—Daily Bulletin.
